Political Exigency Will Not Affect War on Liquor, Pennington Declares

Political parties or no political Commander John D. Pennington, prohibition administrator, declared today at prohibition headquarters here.

The administrator was commenting on a report that Republican politicians were seeking to sever New Jersey from the rest of the district under him.

"Every time we hit a large still it costs $100,000 to $200,000. They have to sell some liquor to make up that difference. Every time we hit a brewery it means money and that's what makes the wheels go round in the best political circles. "We could sit here for ten years and just raid speakeasies and there wouldn't be one word about our removal. But when we hit the pocketbooks that's what hurts:

Determined. "We are determined to close the illegal breweries and alcohol plants in this state even if it takes 200 agents from Pennsylvania in addition to the regular staff to do it. We are not in-tion of any political party—Baird, Moore or anyone else. "Our sole duty is to enforce the law honestly, justly and legally without favors to any party or persons."

terested in the slightest in the elec-

A statement from Senator Davis of Pennsylvania that he was not seeking to "get" Commander Pennington, printed Monday, elicited no comment from the administrators. Delays in court action against breweries, extending over periods of several months, hindered the work of the department, the commander said, but he declined to comment further on this phase.

sermon on "Soviet Russia and Reous Persecution" at the Y. M. H. A. nmunity Home last night, Mr. tzberg stated that a country with-

Trentonian and Two From

Princeton Are Said to

Confess Hold-up At

Rocky Hill

FOUND BURIED IN CELLAR

State Police of the Penns Neck

Barracks yesterday arrested three men as the bandits who earlier in the day held up a United States mail truck on the Rocky Hill Road and stole $3,600 of a payroll belonging to the Atlantic Terra Cotta Company at Rocky Hill. The troopers recovered the entire payroll and two loaded revolvers buried together in the cellar of the home of one of

The men, who the police say anave confessed the hold-up, are Dominick Parrelli, zo years old, of 618

aSouth Clinton Avenue, Trenton; James irFaccatelli, 21 years old, of 421 Alex-fander Street, Princeton, and Nick Boc-

Picaunsusa, 28 years old, of Linden Lane, ithe prisoners.

REVOLVERS AND CASH

Index and Summary Federal and State Court Decisions

petitor-Validity-A covenant of an assistant floor supervisor of a laundry not to work for or become connected with any other laundry doing business in the same two counties of the State as the employer, for a period of two years following the termination plants of New Jersey will be closed. So of employment, made as a part of the employment contract, was not in restraint Gugliemone. (N. J. Ct. E. and Appls.)-V U. S. Daily 2746, Nov. 7, 1930.

Federal Justice Moves Swiftly In Holdup at Rocky

Hill Three bandits who held up and robbed a rural mail carrier of a $3,600 payroll, Friday, at Rocky Hill, were each sentenced to serve 25 years in the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta, by Judge Avis in the United States District Court here yesterday.

The men, Dominick Borelli, 21 years old, of 618 South Clinton Avenue, Trenton: James Saccatelli, 21 years old, of 421 Alexander Street, tor of Har Sinai Congregation. In INational Ingui Diction of Nicholas Boccansuso, chestra Broadcasts---May e, Princeton, received out comment. Go to Europe on the verge of tears is two colleagues from religion cannot exist indefinitely. Trentonians were afforded an opportut when he was about his morning the rabbi will speak tunity of hearing the 316-piece Na he Mercer County Jail, "The Fourth Key to the Enchant- tional High School Orchestra, when i House," giving one of a series of broadcast a program of symphonidemeanor. He laughed sermonettes to the children of music from Carnegie Hall, under the Borelli and the latter Religious School. This service will direction of Walter Damrosch, betweel remarks. Boccansuso, be held at the Y. M. H. A. and 10:30 and 11:30 o'clock yesterda solemn and depressed.

Justice moved with astounding rapidity. At 10 o'clock this morning the case was given to the Federal Granda Jury which is now in session. Anhour later they returned an indictment on all counts. The men were immediately prepared to face Judge e

Shortly after 12 o'clock when a previous case had been disposed of, the s three bandits were marched into the courtroom, handcuffed to deputy mar-

Four guards stood in back of them as they looked quietly up to Judge

United States Attorney Forman carefully read the indictments to them. s Then he asked each in turn how they s pleaded.

"Guilty," they replied. "Do you realize fully what you are saying?" asked Mr. Forman. They all nodded their heads.

Mr. Forman.

The District Attorney then produc Forman said: "Yes."

"And these revolvers were theing used in the hold-up, weren't ing the District Attorney continue "Yes," said Borelli.

Mr. Forman started to furirgin was one of the pistols to open the and it barrel.

eit," broke in Borelli. The two worked over a few moments while a shals inched more clos e did not like the scer

Then Saccatelli "What's that," "What's that,"
"The guns we Saccatelli. 'What, you o'ed?" asked Jy

"No, they 3 Saccatelli. "Well th Judge Avi o to an ind using 1 robber rier.

& oclearly.

Summary of Opinions Published In Full Text in This Issue Master and servant-Contracts of employment-Covenant not to work for com-

Fourteen Federal Prison Charge of Eleven Guz John V. H. Quick, Jr., rural mail car For Atlanta Cells il stealing a $3,600 payroll consigned in a registered letter to the Atlantic Terr Guarded by 11 deputy United States penal inst case. United States Attorney Forman marshals, 14 Federal prisoners, sen- taken from gave the bill to the Federal Grand tenced from this district, left this the Penns Jury yesterday morning and a short morning for their trip to the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta. They Hill band tenced. left in a special Pullman attached to Chief Deputy Marshal Snowden in charge.

The prisoners have been held in the Mercer County Jail since their sen- Florida, who pleaded guilty last week tences. Representing one of the largest to making and passing counterfeit $5 groups ever taken to the Southern bills. He will serve five years.

Mail Hold-up Prisoners

rier last Friday at Rocky Hill, and stealing a $3,600 payroll consigned i Cotta Company at Rocky Hill.

Three of time later they were indicated and sena Southern train leaving the Clinton These men, each sentenced to serve Street Station at 12:30 p. m., with 25 years, are Dominick Borelli, of Trenton, and Nicholas Boccansuso and James Saccatelli, of Princeton. Another prisoner is James Shuter, of

> Also included in the group are three men charged with defrauding the Westmont National Bank of sums totaling $100,000 in stock purchases. Harold Kirkbride, former cashier, will serve four years; Fred Mendelsohn, Westmont merchant, will serve two years, and G. Thomas Flack, Westmont druggist and former director in the > bank, will serve 18 months. James Tammany, of Hudson County, charged with transporting stolen automobiles from one State to another, will serve two years, and David Goldstein, of Passaic, accused of narcotic violations, will serve a similar sentence.

> Louis Nadel, of New Brunswick, charged with using the mails to defraud, will serve 15 months. Sentences of a year and a day were imposed on four others in the group.

> They are Peter J. Miller, charged with false entries in a South Plainfield bank; August Krause, Jersey City, charged with sale of narcotics; Morris Bernstein, charged with using the mails to defraud, and Clyde Brown, Negro, convicted on a white slavery charge.

Three prisoners will not make the trip because they have appealed their cases to higher courts. They are Captain Paul Meisner and First Mate Charles A. Awalt, of the rum boat "Malbo," who were convicted by a Federal jury here of attempted smuggling of liquor, and George Stoess, former proprietor of an Atlantic City hotel, who was convicted of conspiracy to violate narcotic laws.

Dominick Borelli

indication of the city's ingratitude to "You don't want any lawyers?" ask Forman.

Of spiniterant sind of

(Continued from Page 1, Part 1)

blind the carrier, wasnt it" he ask Borelli, who stood nearest to give rman said: "Yes." asoddo saatsnil the opposite direction. possible to observe traffic coming in the vestal: -wi if answer it im- lates and control of the vestal. "Here let me show youden doll det ett im the sale and the state own the cond the sale own the sale of of the lowness of the span. In addiear was hurled to the ground because There a man standing atop a freight is the scene of a recent fatal accident, The new bridge west of Pennington they form a roundabout route. that to same the same towns, but At present autolats can use a series Princeton by one and a quarter miles. between Washington Crossing eventually shorten the present route

County Planning Commission, It will

sidered and approved by the Mercer

The proposed route has been con-

SUSPECTS IN PAYROLL THEFTS IN JAIL HERE

Dominick Borelli, of Trenton, and James Saccatelli and Nicholas Boccansuso, of Princeton, arrested for the robbery of a $3,600 pay roll at Rocky Hill, have been committed to the Mercer County Jail by United States Commissioner Richard S. Wilson in default of $25,000 bail each. The men will be held in jail pending Federal Grand Jury action and trial in the United States District Court.

According to a confession by one of the men, the trio are the bandits who last Friday stopped a mail truck driven by Harley Quick and stole the payroll of the Atlantic Terra Cotta Company, which Quick was taking from a Princeton bank to the company's plant near Rocky Hill. The men put a sack over Quick's head after leveling a revolver at him. They snatched the money bag and escaped. The money was recovered when the men were apprehended.

23 FEDERAL PRISONERS

WAIT TRIP TO ATLANTA

dits are taken to Atlanta to begin sentences of 25 years each, they will go with at least 20 other Federal prisoners now awaiting the time when they will be removed from the Mercer

County Jail to the Federal Penitentiary.

21 years old, of 618 South Clinton

Avenue, Trenton; James Saccatelli, 21 years old, of 421 Alexander Street,

Princeton, and Nicholas Boccansuso, 26 years old, of Linden Lane, Princeton, were sentenced yesterday in the United States District Court here by Judge

They pleaded guilty to holding w

Justice moved with swiftness in the

The mail bandits, Dominick Borelli,

When the three Rocky Hill mail ban-

Ferinceton. The prisoners are being mheld at the State Barracks at Penns thNeck, and will be turned over 'o the in Federal authorities. Postal Inspectors Ketchel and Walker, of Philadelphia, Boare now in Princeton and will take scr charge of the men. The arrest of Boccaunsusa was corbrought about through a "tip" furha nished Officer Elmer Rodweller, of the of Princeton police. The Italian, who is wh employed as a janitor at Princeton Unito versity, asked yesterday morning for a C couple of hours off, saying he had some the matters to attend to.

The State Police say that he jumped situa ten